TO: Andre Lamar

On January 10, 2018, a criminal indictment was filed in the Southern District of New York, in which you are accused of engaging in Bank Fraud by fraudulently obtaining funds from a stolen check, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1344. However, after a thorough investigation, it has been determined that the interest of the United States and your own interest will best be served by deferring prosecution. Prosecution will be deferred during the term of your good behavior and satisfactory compliance with the terms of this agreement for the period of six months from the signing of this agreement. The terms and conditions constituting your good behavior and satisfactory compliance are as follows:

- (1) You shall refrain from violation of any law (federal, state, and local). You shall immediately contact your U.S. Pretrial Services Officer if arrested or questioned by a law-enforcement officer.
- (2) You shall associate only with law-abiding persons.
- (3) You shall work regularly at a lawful occupation and/or regularly attend school and support your legal dependents, if any, to the best of your ability. When out of work or not attending school you shall notify your supervising U.S. Pretrial Services Officer at once. You shall consult him or her prior to job and school changes.
- (4) You shall not leave the Southern or Eastern Districts of New York without permission of your supervising U.S. Pretrial Services Officer.
- (5) You shall notify your supervising U.S. Pretrial Services Officer immediately of any change in your place of residence.
- (6) You shall follow your supervising U.S. Pretrial Services Officer's instructions and advice.
- (7) You shall report to your supervising U.S. Pretrial Services Officer as directed.

The United States Attorney may at any time revoke or modify any condition of this provisional release or change the period of such supervision. The United States Attorney may discharge you from supervision at any time. The United States Attorney may at any time proceed with the prosecution for this offense should the United States Attorney, in his or her sole discretion, deem such action advisable.

If upon completion of your supervision a written report from your supervising U.S. Pretrial Services Officer is received to the effect that you have complied with all the rules, regulations and conditions and special conditions applicable to your deferred prosecution, no further prosecution will be instituted in this District for the above offense.
